SESSION 3 – WORSHIP & PRAISE

WORSHIP DEFINED

The plight of humanity isn't an issue of whether we are or are not able to worship. We have been hard-wired for worship. The word itself, however, is neither good or evil. What makes worship righteous or idolatrous is determined by the object of ones focus and affection.

"We worship from a deep conviction that God is for us in spite of our circumstances." ~Brannon Carnes

- A. Differences Between Praise & Worship (by Bob Sorge)
  - 1. The Father seeks worshipers (Jn. 4:23)
  - 2. Praise is distant & Worship is intimate (Lk. 19:37-40)
  - 3. Praise is seen or heard; worship is not always evident to an observer
  - 4. Praise is horizontal; worship is vertical in its interaction

- B. The Components of Worship (by Brannon Carnes)
  - 1. Worship: It Was Never About the Stage
  - 2. Abraham (Genesis 22:1-14)
    - a. Faith (believe in your heart that God is trustworthy)
    - b. Obedience (following through on what God has spoken)
    - c. An offering (of great value to you given to the Lord)
    - d. The Fire (God accepting the offering)

- C. The Lifestyle of Worship (by Brannon Carnes)
  - 1. The Temple
  - 2. The Good Times & the Bad Times
